HEAL Coalition ALERT: Keiser University Joins HEAL Coalition!

The HEAL Coalition is pleased to announce that Keiser University has become the latest organization to join our efforts to advocate for the interests of proprietary allied health schools!

"I am thrilled to welcome Keiser University as our latest member of the HEAL Coalition," Executive Director Tom Netting said. "Art Keiser has been a dynamic leader in the development and growth of proprietary education, and I am very excited to have someone of his standing and political acumen join us in the HEAL Coalition."

Art Keiser, Chancellor of Keiser University, said, "In a short period of time, the HEAL Coalition has made great strides representing the proprietary community on issues of interest to allied health schools. I look forward to working with the Coalition to increase the activity of the proprietary sector on important health-related policy debates that impact our students and schools."

If you are interested in joining us or would like more information regarding the Coalition, please contact Executive Director Tom Netting at (202) 626-8553.
